DAN RATHER REPORTS' "PORNLAND" PUBLIC SCREENING

Portland, Oregon – Soroptimist International Northwestern Region will be hosting their 3rd Annual Northwest Conference Against Trafficking next weekend [January 14-16, 2011] at the Oregon Convention Center. Two additional Free Public events have been added: A Vigil for Hope and a Screening and Q & A of Dan Rather's "Pornland." This episode of "Dan Rather Reports" originally aired last year on the national television network HDNet.

"We had over 100 students wanting scholarships to the conference, unfortunately as a non-profit organization we were unable to accommodate all of the requests for complimentary weekend passes, so we are happy to offer two events that are open to the public that will be free for them to still learn more about this heinous crime," said Michelle Bart, the conference chair.

The "Pornland" screening will take place following the Vigil for Hope (6-7pm) at the Oregon Convention Center from 8-10pm in the Grand Ballroom (corner of MLK and Holladay) in Portland, Oregon. The screening will be followed by a Q & A with many people that were part of the show including one of Pornland's producers.

The weekend conference will offer breakout sessions, networking receptions, keynote speakers, a luncheon, exhibit resource expo, brunch & brothels w/ actress and advocate Daryl Hannah, a Vigil for Hope for families searching for their loved ones, and continuing education trainings. The Jane Velez-Mitchell Journalism Award will also be presented. The emcee for the conference is Alexis Del Cid, Koin6.
